Case No. _____

EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 15 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the five days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now.

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of:

Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

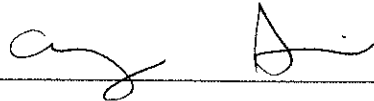

Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

Active military duty in a military combat zone.

5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. ' 109(h) does not apply in this district.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the information provided above is true and correct.

AGREEMENT TO PROVIDE LEGAL SERVICES
CHAPTER 11 BANKRUPTCY CASE

On behalf of our firm we want to thank you for selecting us to represent you. Lawyers are required, under the Rules of Professional Conduct, when beginning the representation of a client to communicate to the client the basis for their fees and the rates they will charge.

We determine the legal fees that we will charge a client by considering many factors. Some of the factors that we consider include: (1) the difficulty of the questions and legal issues presented; (2) the time spent to analyze the facts and documents; (3) the legal research that is required; (4) the time limitations that are imposed by the particular case or circumstances and (5) degree of responsibility involved to manage the particular case.

SCOPE OF LEGAL SERVICES

We have been informed that you are involved in a long battle with your divorce from Sunil A. Patel. The divorce case started in 2008 as case number 2008 D 10380 in the Circuit Court of Cook County. Due to the divorce proceedings, you have substantial debts to your father and to attorneys for legal fees. You are the party to numerous lawsuits relating to attorneys fees, your debts to your father. You also have more than $50,000.00 in unpaid credit card debt. It appears that your debts to your father and the attorneys in the divorce case are more than $1,000,000.00. Therefore, you are not eligible for a chapter 13 bankruptcy case. At this time, your father and the lawyers are fighting over your potential assets. We have agreed to file a chapter 11 case for you in order to stop all collection efforts against you and to permit you to restructure your financial affairs and obtain a discharge of your debts.

We agree to perform legal services in connection with filing a chapter 11 bankruptcy case for you. The representation will include the attending court proceedings; drafting pleadings; drafting schedules; drafting, prosecuting and defending motions; drafting plans of reorganizations and disclosure statements. We agree to perform the legal services that are reasonable and necessary to complete the chapter 11 case by confirming a plan of reorganization, converting the chapter 11 case to a chapter 7 case or dismissing the chapter 11 case.

This agreement is limited to representing you in connection with a chapter 11 bankruptcy case. The execution of this agreement does not obligate us to represent any individual or entity other than Amy E. Sines-Patel in connection with any matter other than a chapter 11 bankruptcy case.

ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

The Porter Law Network will charge you the following hourly rates for the legal services that it provides: $425.00 per hour for the services of Karen J. Porter; $250.00 per hour for Joseph Homsy; $350.00 to $200.00 per hour for associated attorneys and $125.00 per hour for legal assistants.

The Porter Law Network reserves the right to charge for expenses and you agree to pay for all court costs and any other expenses that are required for your case. Such expenses will include, but are not limited to: (1) court filing fees; (2) the actual cost of photocopies; (3) messenger deliveries; (4) actual cost of postage for notices to your creditors, and (5) actual cost of court reporters and transcripts. In addition, we conduct computerized case docketing and legal research from our offices and we will bill those fees to you as an expense.

We request that you pay a retainer of $5763.61 plus the filing fee of $1717.00 in order for us to file a chapter 11 case. PLEASE BE INFORMED that the retainer amount of $5763.61 is not a statement or limitation as to the total cost of the legal services and expenses you can expect to incur for this chapter 11 case. The Porter Law Network will perform the legal services at the hourly rates set forth in this agreement. We are unable to set or limit the amount of the total cost for legal fees and expenses for this chapter 11 case.

You agree to pay for all the legal fees and expenses incurred by the Porter Law Network to represent you. You agree to pay the Porter Law Network any balance due for the legal services we rendered. We will present applications for compensation to the court which will detail the legal fees and expenses for the chapter 11 case. You will have the right to review the applications for compensation before they are filed with the court. The court will award the legal fees and expenses after reviewing the application for compensations.

We are informed that you have the right to assets from your divorce case and from personal injury cases. We are willing to look first to the assets that you have available for the payment of the legal fees and expenses.

We consider the retainer an advance payment retainer under Illinois law because we are committing to provide legal services for the duration of the chapter 11 case rather than on a month to month basis. We will deposit the retainer into our operating account. The retainer becomes our property when we receive the retainer. You have the right to request that the retainer be treated as a security retainer and placed into our client trust account. We reserve the right to change the terms of our representation if you request a security retainer.

ATTORNEYS RESPONSIBILITIES

We agree to perform the following legal services in connection with the chapter 11 case:

- (a) To give you legal advice with respect to its powers and duties as a debtor-in-possession in the continued management of its assets;
- (b) To prepare such applications, motions, complaints, orders, reports, pleadings, plans, disclosure statements or other papers on Your behalf that may be necessary in connection with this case;
- (c) To attend meetings of creditors and meetings with third parties;
- (d) To assist you in preparing and obtaining the court's approval of a plan of reorganization and disclosure statement in order to preserve the value of your assets;
- (e) To take such action as may be necessary with respect to claims that may be asserted against you and
- (f) To perform any other legal services which may be required in connection with this chapter 11 case.

CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES

When you file a bankruptcy case you are required to completely and honestly disclose to the court and in public court documents all the creditors that you have and all the property that you own. You must list all creditors including creditors that you are current with and loans with friends or family members. You must also list all the property that you own.

You agree to fully cooperate with us with respect to the chapter 11 case. You agree to provide us with complete and accurate information concerning your financial affairs. You agree to provide us with a complete and accurate list of all creditors, real and personal property, income and all the other information required by the United States Bankruptcy Court and the United States Trustee responsible for your case.

You will be operating as a debtor in possession in the chapter 11 proceeding. The Office of the United States Trustee imposes obligations on a debtor in possession. We have given you a copy of the Operating Instruction for chapter 11 debtors. You are responsible for reading and complying with the operating instructions. While you have a chapter 11 case pending you will be required to:

- (a) Open a debtor in possession account;
- (b) File monthly operating reports;
- (c) Pay quarterly fees to the trustee;
- (d) Maintain insurance coverage; and
- (e) File state and local tax returns when due.

You will be required to propose a repayment plan to your creditors. The plan of reorganization must be accompanied by a disclosure statement. The Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Court have many requirements for a plan of reorganization. You will be required to cooperate with us regarding the preparation of a plan of reorganization and a disclosure statement that meets the requirement of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Court.

You understand that we will not be able to provide adequate legal representation if you fail to provide us with complete and accurate information, fail to fully cooperate with us, or to otherwise fulfill your obligations as a chapter 11 debtor. You further understand that your failure to provide information, to cooperate with us, or to fulfill your duties during the chapter 11 case may increase the cost of the legal services we render, or may result in the chapter 11 case being dismissed by the court, or our withdrawing as your attorneys.

TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT

We reserve the right to withdraw as your attorneys of record and to terminate this agreement (1) if our legal fees and expenses are not paid as set forth in this agreement, (2) if you fail to cooperate with us during the chapter 11 proceeding, (3) if you fail to comply with any requirement of the United States Trustee (4) if you fail to obey an order of the court, (5) if you spend cash collateral without authorization and (6) if you fail to comply with any other terms of this agreement.

Any party may terminate this agreement with or without cause and at any time upon giving written notice to the other party. The termination of this agreement will not affect your obligation to pay any outstanding legal fees. We agree that if this agreement is terminated we will return any files in our possession to you provided you have paid any outstanding legal fees and expenses, including copy charges for copying the files.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This agreement contains our full and complete understanding with respect to the subject matter hereof. This agreement supersedes all prior representations and understandings whether written or oral. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois in all respects. This agreement may be executed by facsimile or electronic signature and in counterparts. Please date and countersign this Agreement in the space below and return it to me so that we will have a written memorandum of our mutual understandings regarding our representation. Please retain a copy of this agreement for your file.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER §342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($274.00 filing fee, $46 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total fee $335.00)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a “means test” designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($264 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1671 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $1717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($229 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
